SECURED FOR PUBLICATION IN THE HONGKONG DAILY PRESS. "THE MAHDI," A STORY OF LOVE AND HEROISM. T. HALL CAINE,

Author of "The Scapegoat," "The Bondman,"
"The Doemster," "Shadow of a Crime," " A Son of Hagar," "The Mauxman,"

COMMENCED IN OUR COLUMNS SATURDAY, Suth March, 1895. Mr. HALL CAINE, who is, without doubt, the ablest and most graphic Novelist of the age. has very closely studied the condition of the 21 oppressed peoples of Europe and Northern Africa, and has introduced into his books seenes of intense power taken from actual events. In his latest work, "The Mandi," Mr. HALL CAINE endeavours to bring home to the hearts of his readers something about that strange personage, the Mahdi, which has not previously been published. The Mahdi, in Mr. Caipe's judgment, was a hero and a patriot; a man nessessing the wisdom almost of a Solomon with the military powers of a Saladin. In battle he knew no fear, and before howling and decisive 25 mobs he preserved a calm and dignified bearing. He struggled to free his countrymen from the tyrants who hold power, and he sought to give woman her rightful place as man's equal and Yesterday when we met that deputation and made the guarantee that there would be no poll tax, I used hardly say it was done with the assurance-which I am sure was not mistukeu that the strike would cease immediately it was given. The strike practically did cease as soon as the knowledge of that, was given, and it was reverted to only this morning in order that they might have the Government notification. I think it is a great pity that in serious matters like this any unnecessary passion should be imported into the disonasion. I came here with the desire of discussing in a quiet and calm manuer a matter of a rious import; but if your Excellency thinks it is necessary to hold film and make no concession, I would ask, is the Government fully aware that it is strong enough to quell this strike before it has brought most terrible consequences upon the colony Has it the power-is the Ordinance rendy to nut in force to stop this strike?
